Dear Parents/ Carers,

VIXEN

By E Govier

Please Note this play is aimed at students of a secondary age

You are warmly invited to our winter production of 'VIXEN' by Miss E Govier, which is loosely based on Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice. The play will feature students from Years 10 – 13 many of whom are studying Drama at GCSE, AS & A2.

Synopsis: James Fitzwilliam Darcy leads a double life. As the only true aristocrat amongst his friends, the 'Made in Mayfair' set, he comes across in public as aloof and disinterested in women. However his real job as an agent for MI6, means that his life is filled with constant danger, beautiful women and fast cars. After a disastrous meeting with a contact in Soho, Darcy is forced to take a sabbatical. He is sent to stay with his best friend Charles Bingley, part of the Made in Mayfair set who is heir to Bingley Biscuits. Keen to shoot a series in New York, Bingley together with his sisters Caroline and Louisa rent a home opposite the presidential family with an eye to encouraging them to feature in their series.

Recently elected as America's new president, Bob Bennet and his family are very much in the public eye. His wife Felicia 'manages' her daughters, acting as their agent and advisor. The eldest, Jayne is a singer, Lizzie an actor, Mary a blogger and the twins Lydia and Kitty are socialites. When fate throws James Darcy and Lizzie Bennet together at a Made in Mayfair brunch, sparks fly and both find themselves inexplicably attracted to one another. However, the world as they know it is about to change as Darcy finds himself face to face with his old nemesis Georg Volkov and the fight is on to rid the world of a fanatical organisation known as VIXEN...
